DARE TO KNOW THEATRE INVITES

First of all thank you for attending the first iteration of Dare to Know Theatre Invites, a brand new evening of new-writing from some of our favourite local artists.

If you don't know who we are, we're Dare to Know Theatre, a theatre company from Oldham, dedicated to making work with and for our local community.

We have a wonderful evening lined up for you, so sit back, grab a drink, and enjoy the show.

DARE TO KNOW

INVITES

- ELEANOR PRESTWICH - Eleanor is a Falmouth Theatre Graduate, actress and model from Oldham. Eleanor has been acting in theatre and film from the age of thirteen and is now teaching at local youth theatre school; Reaction Performing Arts.
- MARTIN KELLY - Martin is happy to be back performing at The Grange after more than 30 years, during that time, he has been fortunate to perform on both sides of the Atlantic. Twenty-five of those years were spent performing musicals. Favourite roles include: Oliver Warbucks in Annie, Alfred Doolittle in My Fair Lady,, Curtis Jackson in Sister Act The Musical & The Blind Hermit in Young Frankenstein The Musical. Martin has also appeared on film as The Narrator in The Devil's Swindle, a 2016 short film & in various roles for Diamond Tongues, a 2015 Canadian film which performed very well at many of the international Film Festivals around the world. As well as performing in the theatre, Martin has also spent the past 20 years, as a male vocalist. In general, give him a space to perform & he's one happy guy!
- CATHERINE SHARP - Catherine's love of the stage began when she was aged five, after being enticed back on stage with a tube of smarties to perform her very first song and dance of 'Red Red Robin', she's been 'bobbing along' ever since! From dance shows, pantos, light opera to musicals and plays, from dancer, singer, actor to director, Catherine has managed to fulfil her love for all things theatre. Catherine is a regular with many fabulous local theatre societies such as Hallfold G&S & LOS, Curtain Theatre and many more. Catherine also runs the youth theatre, PH2Youth, for Crompton Stage Society at Playhouse 2.

DARE TO KNOW THEATRE INVITES

- Noah Tomlin - Noah Tomlin is an aspiring playwright who completed his first stage script, 'It Don't Snow Here', in 2021. Noah is excited to be working with Dare to Know Theatre and will be producing a monologue for 'Dare to Know Invites'. He particularly enjoys writing comedy and comedy-drama and hopes to complete work for both stage and TV in future.

Dare to Know Theatre are excited to be able to offer Noah support over the next year. Not only writing your first play during a pandemic, but for it to be of the quality that 'It Don't Snow Here' is, is a wonderful sign of Noah's ability. His charisma and undoubtable knowledge is something that we always endeavour to find whenever we work with someone.

- Kira Richardson - Kira is really excited to be part of this showcasing of new local writers and artists with such a talented team behind it. She has been acting for 11 years now, having been trained in Musical Theatre from a young age. Most recent productions include Once Upon A Time in Wigan, The Kitchen Sink and The King's Orphan. She is thrilled to be back on stage after a difficult 18 months for theatre and hope that there are more exciting events and opportunities ahead to look forward to.

Starring

Taylor Bowden as Libby
Sophie Heffron as Flossie

Directed By Miranda Parker

DARE TO KNOW THEATRE INVITES

- Caitlin Cribbin - Caitlin Cribbin is an aspiring writer and actor born and raised in Oldham. She has always had an interest in theatre, and has always been that annoying theatre kid (hopefully better now!). Caitlin is really looking forward to sharing her work with the public, and helping to share hers and many others experiences of a working class background.

Dare to Know Theatre are really excited to be able to support Caitlin over the next year. We've met Caitlin a few times recently, and we've always found her commitment, energy and enthusiasm for theatre, drama and the arts infectious.

- Taylor Bowden - Taylor has always known acting was her passion, now studying performing arts at Oldham College, she knows that stepping into another character's shoes, is the pure freedom that she thrives on. She's really proud to say that she's an actress.
- Sophie Heffron - Currently studying performing arts at college, Sophie has gained a lot of valuable experience and confidence, through portraying someone else, which gives her a sense of empowerment. Recent credits include; The English Game (Supporting Artist) and 'The Irregulars' (Body Double), Sophie is currently shooting a short film to be released later in the year.

DARE TO KNOW

INVITES

- The Film Shed MCR - The Film Shed MCR is a new, independent production company based in the North West, founded by Company Director Emma Sykes, and assisted by Associate Artist Sofi-Jo Bennett.
- A conceptual piece, 'Homecoming' offers an observation on the collective attitude to our individual lives. It aims to explore the connection between our inner and outer selves; addressing external pressures from society and the effect they have on our mental health and wellbeing.
- Sofi-Jo and Emma recently met over vodka sodas in their local, before becoming totally professional and reverting to peppermint tea (ooh err!). Both having cheerful and extremely creative dispositions, it was decided they were to make something together! With The Film Shed being in its infancy and lockdown granting more spare time, both the process and the partnership had the freedom to grow naturally and spontaneously. Both have had extensive training all over the world and continue to practice and develop independently. They both value creating work and an environment which is honest and open; prioritising truth above all.
- We are so excited and humbled to be a part of Dare To Know Theatre Invites and are so excited to share our creation with you all.
